

Final Exam

ENGL 2220

Total Points: 300

Due: Dec 08, 12:00 PM either in Language 208D or to my Email maraja@unt.edu

Answer all parts of each question.

Write your answers as mini essays.

Cite all your sources using the MLA citation system.

Minimum length per question: 3 pages.

1. What is hegemony and dominance and how does it work within the colonial history. What are some examples of both the concepts in real life as you live it? Discuss using at least three essays or stories read for the class that deal with/ or rely on hegemony and dominance.

2. How does world literature help you understand the contemporary world and its history better? Why should American students worry about what is happening in the world? Discuss using specific examples from at least three stories/ essays. [These three stories/ essays cannot be the ones you used to answer question 1]

3. What are four Cultural/ Historical things you learned while reading The Stork Mountain?

Please answer this question in the following sequence:

1. Four Things you learned.
2. How does the author narrate/ introduce these things?
3. Why do you think those things were included and how do they add to the story?
4. How do these things enhance your understanding of Bulgarian culture and history?