

Pakistaniaat: A Journal of Pakistan Studies

Volume 2, Number 2, June 2010

Contributors

Rizwan Akhtar : Originally from Pakistan, Rizwan Akhtar is currently a PhD candidate at the University Of Essex, UK. His poems have appeared in Poetry Salzburg Review, Poetry NZ, Wasafiri, decanto, tinfoildresses , Poesia and the few have been anthologized by Forward Press UK.”

Shaikh Muhammad Ali (BSEET, MBM) has a Bachelors in Electronics Engineering from University of Southern Colorado, USA and a Masters in Business Management from the Asian Institute of Management, Manila, Philippines. After having worked in the private sector locally & abroad for almost fourteen years, he is now working as the senior most Project Director (HRD) for the Higher Education Commission (HEC) for the last 6.10 years and is currently managing foreign scholarship programs for faculty development of Public sector universities in Pakistan and is also experimenting with the concept of Change Management.

Riffat Bawa: Born in Mumbai in 1935 to a middle class family, Syed Riffat Hussain, was raised in pre-partition India as a liberal thinking young man. After he passed high school exam in India, his parents migrated to Pakistan in 1963 and settled in Karachi where Riffat completed university studies graduating in economics. From the very childhood Riffat was a different type of boy who was more inclined towards philosophical thinking. He would talk wiser than the boys of his age and hence he was nicknamed as ‘Bawa’ which means wise guy in Urdu.

Dr. Aftab Hussain Gilani is an Assistant Professor of History and Pakistan Studies Department of Islamia University Bahawalpur, Pakistan.

Waqar Haider Hashmi is a professional trainer and consultant on ISO 9000, Human Resource Management and Quality Management. He has completed productivity fellowship on Total Quality Management from Japan Productivity Center for Socio-Economic Development Tokyo under the auspices of Asian Productivity Center in 1998 and also passed Lead Auditor Course for ISO 9000 from British Standards Institute. Waqar conducts academic courses at Quaid-e-Azam University Islamabad, Iqra University, Islamabad & International Islamic University Islamabad. He has conducted training courses at the platforms of Pakistan Institute of Management Karachi, Postal Staff College Islamabad, Custom House Karachi, Heavy Industries Taxila and CBR Tax Division etc.

Shadab Zeest Hashmi holds an MFA from Warren Wilson. She has been the editor of the annual Magee Park Poets Anthology since 2000. Originally from Pakistan, she lives in San Diego. Her poems have been included in Nimrod International, Hubbub, New Millennium Writings, The Bitter Oleander, Poetry Conspiracy, San Diego Poetry Annual, Pakistani Literature and online in The Cortland Review and UniVerse: A United Nations of Poetry among other publications. Her book of poems Baker of Tarifa (Poetic Matrix Press) is forthcoming in 2010.

Samia Khalid is a Lecturer of Pakistan Studies in the Department of History and Pakistan Studies, Faculty of Islamic Learning, The University of Bahawalpur, Pakistan.

Noor Akbar Khalil is affiliated with the Universities of Roehampton, U.K, and Gothenburg University, Sweden.

Swaralipi Nandi is a Ph.D. candidate in the English Department of Kent State University, United States.

Mustafa Qadri is the Pakistan correspondent for www.the-diplomat.com and newmatilda.com and also the Pakistan columnist for Guardian UK.

Mashhood Ahmed Sheikh is a graduate student at Tromso University, Norway.

Colleen Thorndike is a graduate student at Kent State University, United States.

Mehnaz Turner was born in Pakistan and raised in southern California. She is a 2009 PEN USA Emerging Voices Fellow in Poetry. She holds degrees from the University of Arizona, The University of Texas at Austin, UC Santa Barbara, and Cal State Channel Islands. Her poetry has appeared in publications such as The Pedestal Magazine, Cahoots, Desilit Magazine, SAMAR (South Asian Magazine for Action and Reflection), and An Anthology of California Poets (2006). She teaches English at Moorpark High School. Her website/blog on the writing life may be accessed at www.mehnazturner.blogspot.com.

Tatiana Zelenetskaya Young is a Ph.D. Candidate in the Anthropology Department of Temple University, Philadelphia, United States.

Dr. David Waterman is Maître de conférences in English at the Université de La Rochelle, France, as well as a member of the research team CLIMAS (Cultures and Literatures of the English Speaking World) at the Université Michel de Montaigne, Bordeaux III, France.